BATCHELDER GENEALOGY

Phineas Batchelder (1611), son of Stephen (161).

Lived in Sandown until 1790. Sold his place there June 12, 1790, and moved to Sutton, N.H. Moved in 1792 to Fisherfield, now Newbury, N.H., where he was taxed 1794 - 1801. Was of Goshen, N.H., in May 1802, and Feb. 1805. See below for later residence. Was selectman of Newbury 1793 and 1797.

The Sandown town meeting warrant, dated Feb. 18, 1775, contains an article, "to see if the parish will give to Humpry Cloughs Daughter the things that was hur mothers." The vote, Mar. 6, 1775, was "to give Sarah Batchelder all the goods or stuf of hur mothers that is not disposed of."

Worthen's History of Sutton (1890), II, 605, has this account of Phineas:

"Phineas Batchelder removed from Sandown to Sutton in 1789. He was quite a noted man in his day, being a sheriff, and as such having business in many places. He also was a "drovier," as it was termed, buying cattle and taking the drove down country to sell at the markets of the large towns, and thus made many acquaintances. In early life he had been a school teacher; also a teacher of dancing and etiquette." He was a direct descendant of the noted Rev. Stephen Bachelor of Lynn and other towns at an early date. Phineas Batchelder lived at one period in Newbury, but spent the last of his years with his daughter Dorothy, wife of Dea. Samuel Bean, in Sutton. Phineas Batchelder d. May 18, 1833, in Newbury; m. Sally Clough in 1775; d. Sept. 24, 1832."

The 1790 census, Sandown, lists Bachelor, Phineas, 1.-.6. The 1800 census, Fishersfield, gives him a family of four females under 10, three more 10-15, and one more 16-25; no males (besides himself).

His family, as given below, is based on the account in the History of Sutton, which names ten daughters and gives years (only) for their births and marriages, which dates are apparently approximations. The following account has some corrections and added data, not in the History, but the children's and their husbands' names are primarily from that record.

Elder Daniel Batchelder (1612), son of Stephen (161).

Pierce (p. 414) makes Elder Daniel the son of Jonathan & Hepsibah (Conant) Batchelder of Beverly, Mass., who had a son of that name born Feb. 5, 1765. Essex County Deeds (144-2, 154-240, 157-109) show this son had died without issue before June 25, 1784, his brothers and sister inheriting his property.

Elder Daniel's grandfather Phineas (16), willed him four acres of land in Sandown. His sale of it is not on record, but Rowell Straw owned it in February 1833. Daniel Batchelder of Sandown deeded to John Judkins of Candia (See 1611.ii) land in New Chester Feb. 20, 1787, (Grafton County Deeds), and Judkins deeded to Daniel Bachellor of Sandown Feb. 12, 1787, one half of lot 55 in the 2^d Range in Unity, N.H., laid out to his grandfather, Samuel Judkins of Kingston. Daniel Batchelder of Unity deeded land in this same numbered lot to William Long of Unity Nov. 29, 1788. Long reconveyed to Daniel Mar. 20, 1792. Daniel Batchelder (wife Phebe) of Unity sold it Aug 13, 1796, and sold other land in Unity June 12, 1797. (Cheshire County Deeds). Stephen Long (sub 161 ante) had a son William born Jul. 12, 1763. The deeds and the wife Phebe are sufficient to identify Elder Daniel as from Sandown. His birth from family report was Feb. 16, 1765, which fits with the baptism as son of Stephen (161).

Elder Daniel lived in Sandown until 1787 or 1788, when he moved to Unity. 1790 census gives his family as 3-1-1. He sold out there 1796-7 and moved to Corinth, Vt. Here he was an original member of the Free Will Baptist Church at West Corinth organized by Elder Ballard of Unity in 1798, and became the first pastor, after having been ordained Oct. 4, 1799. He continued to preach more or less during the rest of his life, but I am not clear how continuously he was a settled pastor. See Free Baptist Cyclopedia, p.42. He was of Corinth in 1806, but moved to Bradford, Vt. before 1811, and was there 1814. Of Piermont N.H. in 1815, but of Corinth again in 1819. Lived in Coventry (now Benton), N.H., 1823-31. Of Bradford in February, 1832 (Strafford County, N.H. Deeds), but in that year or early in 1833 went to Ohio to "stay with" his daughter Asenath. On learning of the death of his son Chase, he went to Cincinnati from Asenath's to look after his effects, and died there May 6, 1833, three days after his arrival.

His death was reported in the N.H. Patriot of June 17, 1833: - "In Cincinnati, about the 1st of May, Elder Daniel Batchelder, aged about 60, recently of Coventry, N.H."

Children, birth of first three not on town record, next four recorded at Corinth, and last two at Bradford:

ii. Asenath b. Jul. 15, 1791; m.1. Elisha Locke Ladd Jan. 1, 1822, son of Jonathan & Mary (Locke), b. June 14, 1787 in Bradford, Vt., d. Apr. 26, 1845, in Ohio.

They moved to Hampden, Geauga County, Ohio, as early as 1823, as their son Daniel was born in Hampden. Asenath m.2. _____ Holcomb, who was "not acceptable to the family." She lived at one time in Michigan but died in (Pierce says Huntsville) Alabama Sep. 17, 1863. See Genealogy of Capt. John Locke, 134. Chn. b. in Ohio:

APPENDIX

Alice Shaw of Hampton, b. Aug. 8, 1707; m. in 1732 Jonathan Robinson of Brentwood. Will of Jedidiah Robinson (their son) of Brentwood, in 1778, mentions his mother Alice Robinson, children of his sister Alice Batchelder deceased, and other brothers and sisters. The sister Alice was of Exeter unmarried Aug. 10, 1763, when she deeded her share in estate of her father, Jonathan Robinson.

On Oct. 20, 1789, Josiah Batchelder of Nottingham, cordwainer, deeds his right to real and personal estate under will of Jedediah Robinson of Brentwood. I find no conveyance by any other child of Alice (Robinson) Batchelder.

This Josiah, from family Bible, was b. Jul. 10, 1764; m. Lydia _____ b. Oct. 12, 1766, and had: -

| iv. Jonathan | b. Oct. 14, 1792. (below) |

Josiah (1764 -) is of Nottingham in 1790 census, family 1-3-2. He witnessed a Nottingham deed of John Chesley, to Richard Hull May 30, 1786. He moved to Conway N.H. where he was living in 1794 and 1795. Family tradition that one of his children married an Eastman, and that some of the family lived in Enfield, N.H. He was living in Lee in 1787 (and 1788?), but he was back in Nottingham in 1789. See Court records at Exeter: - David Glidden of Chester v. Josiah Batchelder, 1789 (on notes dated at Chester in Feb. & Mar. 1786). File No. 10698. Residence of J.B. given as Lee but altered to Nottingham.

Enoch Butler v. Josiah Batchelder of Nottingham, 1790. File No. 11999. See also Lee tax list 1787, in 12 N.H. State Papers (Town Papers).

There was a Moses Batchelder, perhaps the above, who lived at Portsmouth 1811-5 and married there Sarah Jackson Oct. 3, 1811. May be the Moses Batchelder, tailor, who was in Boston Mass. 1818-23.

Jonathan (above) b. Oct. 14, 1792; moved from Conway to Danville, Vt. about 1815, and died 1842. He m. Susan (or Susannah) (Stevens), widow of _____ Daniels (by whom she had chn.) Oct. 15, 1817, at Danville. Their only child was
